About Sindh Literature Festival

Journey of SLF begin in 2016, it celebrates the power of words, culture, music and the teachings of peace and tolerance. The purpose is to highlight that Sindh boasts rich and vibrant cultures and traditions and they offer a different flavors of the province. It aims to provide a venue for established and emerging writers to meet with their readers and to engage new fans. Literary and cultural traditions of the province are being celebrated in the three-day event.

Along with live coverage, a variety of stories, reports, programs, and packages are also produced. A number of TV channels and newspapers publish news and columns. Different sessions including book launches and discussions on various topics, theater, music, and mushaira are also planned over the course of three days.

Noor ul Huda Shah Mentor & Advisor

Noor ul Huda Shah is a Pakistani dramatist, short story writer, poet, and columnist. She was also the Information Minister during the caretaker government in Sindh. She writes in both Sindhi and Urdu. She is best known for writing popular TV serials like Jungle, Marvi, Faasley, and Tapish.

Noor ul Huda Shah completed her education at Sindh University and then started a career at Pakistan Television Corporation (PTV). Her first play, Jungle, aired on television in 1983. Later, she joined Geo as a soap producer. She was appointed CEO of A-Plus Television. Afterward, she started working for Hum Sitaray. In 2017, she joined the Bol Network.

She has written numerous short stories, some of which have been compiled in a collection called Jala Watan. She is also a member of the governing body of the Arts Council of Pakistan, Karachi.

Naseer Gopang Founder & Producer

Naseer is the man behind the idea of the Sindh Literature Festival. Because of his vision and foresight, this festival was successfully initiated. He has a Master's Degree in Literature. Basically, he is a journalist and started journalism in 2003. As a journalist and television personality, he has worked with many newspapers and channels. He visited the USA as part of the journalist exchange program.

He has been the Director of News & Current Affairs at Dharti TV. In addition, he has hosted several programs, including Opinion with Ali Kazi, The Front Page, Issues, Sindh Agenda, and News Talk with Naseer Gopang. He is also a member of different organizations like the Arts Council of Pakistan, Karachi, Pakistan Federal Union of Journalists (PFUJ), and Pakistan-USA Alumni Network, etc.

Zohaib Kaka Managing Director

Zohaib is a founding member of the Sindh Literature Festival. With Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Business Administration, he began his career in journalism in 2010 as an Anchor and Director of Business News at KTN News, Karachi.

His primary responsibilities include research and conducting live programs. He was selected as a Fellow in a Journalist Exchange Program to the United States of America. He did a certification in Business Journalism from the Institute of Business Administration (IBA), Karachi.
